PROSPECTUS

OF THE
Louisianian.

In the endeavor to establish another journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the Louisianaian, propose to fill a necessity which has long, and sometimes painfully, been felt. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their right, it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement, and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the Louisianaian a desideratum in these pects.

POLICY.

Our motto indicates, the Louisianaian shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances." We advocate the security and enjoyment of broad civil liberty, the absolute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honors and patronage to all who merit them.

Desiring of allaying animosities, of restoring the memory of the bitter struggle of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all individuals, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignity and resentment reigned, and seek for peace and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in views and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble character to an enviable position among the sister States, by the development of all legitimate resources, and secure the benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country.

Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the taxes, economy in the expenditure, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the benefit of every legitimate obliga-

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing the common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with the enlightenment, and the seen and stability of a Republican Government.

FINAL.

By a generous, mainly, independent, and judicious conduct, we shall strive to secure our paper, from an ephemeral and temporary existence, and establish it upon a basis, that if we are "commanded," we shall at all times "obey" success.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

ROOMS STATE CENTRAL CONVENTION Republican Party of Louisiana, New Orleans, April 12, 1872.—At a meeting of the Republican State Executive Committee, held on the eleventh instant, the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the convention called by the State Committee to meet in New Orleans on the second day of May, 1872, be postponed until Tuesday, the twenty-eighth day of May, 1872, and that notice be given to the parish and ward committees of the several parishes and wards.

P. B. S. PINCHBACK,

President.

WILLIAM VIGERS, Recording Secretary

State Central Committee.

MR. PINCHBACK'S SPEECH.

Immediately after which, Mr.

Pinchback rose and said:

DELEGATES TO THE STATE CONVEN-TION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—

You have assembled here at the call of your State Central Committee to select delegates to the National Convention, called to meet at Philadelphia on the 6th of June, 1872, to nominate the standard-bearers of our great and glorious party for the coming campaign; to nominate a State ticket and to declare anew your unswerving attachment to equal rights, justice and liberty.

The coming campaign will be a fight for principle, a conflict for power between despotism and freedom.
Under the banner of the former, will be marshalled the Democracy, with its opposition to equal rights, with its opposition to mixed schools, with its record of persecuting the colored people wherever it is in power, with its assumption of divine right to hold all the offices, with its pretensions of representing the wealth and intelligence of the State and of paying all the taxes.

Under the banner of the latter will be marshalled (it is hoped) every true Republican, every believer in the capacity of man for self-government, and who has a just appreciation of the true dignity of humanity, and a fearless assertion of the glorious principles of our party, and who desires an honest, efficient and economical administration of our government.

We have passed through several severe struggles, we have accomplished great things, but much more remains to be done, our Constitution and laws guarantee to every citizen no matter what his complexion or nationality, perfect equality; you are here to vindicate the justice of these measures, and to declare that you will take no step backward in the work of the Republican party. To do this it will require that calm, dispassionate consideration of every subject that may come before you, necessary to a full appreciation of the objects to be attained.

Problems more difficult of solution are before you now than when we last met in convention, and require more devotion, more perseverance than the struggles through which we have passed; for, in addition to the common enemy, we have an unfortunate division in our party; new dangers are looming up, rumors of disgraceful combinations on all sides fill the air. In the struggle for office, all sight of principle has been lost. What you have to do is clear; keep your eye fixed steadily upon the great principles of our party; remember, that personal resentments, are not sufficient cause for compromising the interests of the people whom you represent. It is for you to say whether the Republican party shall survive or perish, whether the love of education exhibited by the colored people shall be gratified, whether the homes of over one hundred thousand people shall be protected from the unhallowed footprints of Democratic tyranny. This is the work before you, and, doubt not, your action will be such as to meet the approval of your constituents. The people demand a re-union of the party, and you should so act as to convince them that the responsibility of the division if it continues, rests not upon you.
Should your efforts be crowned with success, as I am confident they will if you pursue the proper course, peans of victory will be cheered by the united Republicans of Louisiana on the third of November, echoed back from all parts of the Union by thousands and thousands of hearts attuned in union with ours.

Mr. Pinchback then moved that Hon. A. B. Harris, of Concordia, be elected temporary President of the Convention, which motion was adopted by a large majority.

On motion of Hon. Thos. Murray, duly seconded, the Chair was anthorized to appoint a committee of three to escort the temporary presiding officer to his seat. The Chair appointed Messrs. Murray, of Orleans, Mathews, of Tensas, and Faulkner, of Caldwell.

Senator Harris, on assuming the Chair, briefly and appropriately thanked the Convention for the honor it had conferred on him in selecting him to preside over its temporary organization, and expressed the hope that their proceedings would be characterized by that harmony which was so desirable in the ranks of the Republican party.

On motion of Lieutenant Governor Pinchback, duly seconded, Hon. Thos. H. Noland and Capt.
Wm. H. Green were elected temporary Secretaries of the Convention.

The same gentleman made a motion, which prevailed, that the Chair appoint a committee of seven on Credentials; also the appointment of five Sergeants-at-Arms.

On motion of Hon. N. Underwood, of Baton Rouge, duly seconded, the President was authorized to appoint a committee of seven on Permanent Organization.

On motion of Mr. Camp, of Orleans, Right Bank, duly seconded, the President was authorized to appoint a committee of seven on Rules.

Several suggestions were then offered as to the propriety of taking a recess to allow the committees to prepare their report, resulting in a motion, by Senator H. J. Campbell, to take a recess till 3 o'clock p. m. The Chair, before submitting the motion, stated that he would announce the committees if a few minutes were allowed him. No motions being offered for a short time, Senator Harris announced the following committees:

COMMITTEE ON CREDENTIALS.— Pinchback, of Orleans; Butler, of Plaquemines; Mathews, of Tensas; Ruby, of Natchitoches; Belden, of Terrebonne; Quinn, of Orleans; Twitchell, of Red River.

COMMITTEE ON PERMANENT ORGAN-IZATION.—Underwood, of Baton Rouge; Washington, of Concordia; sacker, of St. James; Faulkner, of stead, of Iberville, Lynch, of Carroll, Young, of Concordia, Harper, of St.

Charles, Magloire, of Avozelles, Kelso, of Rapides.

SENEGAT-AT-ARMS.—P. Z. Cannonge
and Capt. D. A. Wood.

General Campbell then renewed his motion, which was amended so as to read 2 o'clock, and the Convention went into recess till 2 p. m.

At the expiration of the recess, President A. B. Harris called the Convention to order, and announced the readiness of the Convention to hear the report of the Committee on Credentials. Lieutenant Governor Pinchback, chairman, reported that there were several contested cases before the committee, and the members being anxious to hear the claimants, would be unable to report in less than two or three hours at the least.

On motion of Hon. D. Young, duly seconded, the Convention adjourned to Wednesday, May 29, at 11 o'clock a. m.

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

We will be glad if you notify our office of any delinquency on the part of our carrier, as our arrangements are such that every issue of our paper should be regularly delivered.

Let every true Republican use all his exertions to promote union in Baton Rouge on the 19th.

Want of space prevents us from offering much counsel to our friends this week, but we will have our say in good time.

The National Civil Rights Bill of Mr. Sumner is having a hard road in the lower House of Congress. A strict vote was taken on it, on Wednesday and failed for want of a two-third vote.

Our friend F. J. D'Avy, Esq., will receive our congratulations on his appointment as Major and Aid-de-Camp on the staff of Major-General Hugh J. Campbell, in the First Division of the Louisiana State Militia.

Thursday was observed with all the honors due to the anniversary of great events. The decoration of the soldiers' graves, and the delivery of speeches at Chalmette were more than a success. Hundreds of persons were in attendance and with but one or two unpleasant incidents the day passed off well.

The Philadelphia Institute for colored youth, held its nineteenth annual commencement exercises in Concert Hall, on May 17th.
The examinations were of a satisfactory character and prizes were awarded successful competitors.

The Principal of this excellent institution is a lady.

How can "better feelings" be established, how can "co-operation" between the "old citizens" and the colored people be had as long as we are only recognized and classed as "ignorant" "venal" "population"? Men who say they think us as a race unfit for equal privileges should not growl if we look on placing them in power with suspicious apprehension.

ATTITUDE OF PARTIES IN LOUISIANA.

It is claimed that there are four parties in Louisiana, viz: the Democratic party, the National Republican party, the Reform party, and Liberal Republican party; and for a long time we have been laboring under this belief, but developments of late begin to show conclusively that the fight will narrow down to a conflict between the colored men and a few true and tried white men who believe in equal rights, justice and freedom on the one side, against the proscriptive, klu-klux, white man's party democracy, on the other.
Hear what the New Orleans Picayune says on the subject, and remember it is the organ of the Reformers who proposed to combine with the Customhouse party:

The question then, is which of the Republican divisions in the State has most claims upon the confidence of the people?
Both have made propositions looking to a support of their respective tickets. Gov.
Warrenton has made overtures to the Democrats looking to a union of all the anti-Grant elements of the State, and the Grant party have also made overtures in the same direction. Right here comes up the question of race. The Grant party being composed almost exclusively of negroes, the demands of this element are represented, with or without foundation in fact, to be of an extravagant character. The negroes are said to be dictatorial and disposed to defy their white colleagues. Should they insist upon nominating a negro candidate for Governor, the white people would unite instantly upon a candidate of their own race. But let us hope that this conflict will be averted, and that prudence will preside in the councils of our black fellow-citizens.

We might just as well tell our neighbor right here, that this threat of consolidating the white people upon a candidate of their own has no more terrors for us than Mr.
Pinchback's oratorical bullying has for them, and while we deny that the negroes are dictatorial and disposed to defy their white colleagues; we admit that the day has passed when they are to be made the suppliant tools of designing demagogues, because they are white, no matter whether they come from the North or South; and if the nomination of a Negro for Governor is sufficient cause to make the white people unite upon a candidate of their own race, would we not be justified by that sort of argument in putting a man of our race in nomination?

Now, let us have no more of this demagogism—let us try to secure a good ticket, without reference to color, except only in so far as a fair representation of all classes and interests are concerned.

The Customhouse organ thinks the omission of the Convention to make nominations a sign of weakness, thus attempting to inflame Republicans on its side with false ideas of their own importance and defeat the restoration of harmony. It is clear that this sheet, and those who run it, have no desire to reunite, for while they know that the convention in postponing nominations only obeyed the wishes of the best Republicans, that every effort should be exhausted to secure but one set of nominees, and that this could only be done by united action, the generous proposal for joint action is treated with ridicule. Fortunately reconciliation will this time be taken out of men "who cannot teach and will not learn." This people will meet in convention and dictate the terms of settlement, and we have all confidence in their ability, because they are sincere.

Pelican Lodge K. C. will receive our thanks for an invitation to attend their first GRAND PICNIC, to be given for the benefit of their relief fund, at the City Park, on Thursday and Friday, June 6th 7th, 1872.

A fine programme of entertainments has been drawn up. The Lodge will start at an early hour on a march through the city, thence to the Park, where the festival will be opened by Mr. H. J. Cline, and the novel feature of set oratory will be introduced. Dr. R. I. Cromwell will be the orator of the day.

We hope circumstances will be all propitious and that the object of the enterprise may be realized.

The latest vagary in the women's rights line that we hear of is the application of Tinnie C. Claffin for the colonelcy of the Ninth New York Regiment.

The famous Bill funding the State debt was promulgated in the

PLAIN WORDS FOR THE PICAYUNE.

The New Orleans Picayune in its article published yesterday headed "A Few Plain Words for Mr.
Pinchback," continues in the unkind and unfair attitude it has seen fit to take against that gentleman.
It charges him with arrogance and malice prepense because he spoke plainly and frankly against an attack made upon him by that paper.

It also says: "Mr. Pinchback protests that he seeks nothing for his people but fair play, a just share of political power, and a due representation in the official service of the State.
Here he is entirely wrong. It is time for him to come to a specific statement of his demands. It is time for him to make the square issue, and let us all know where he and his colored adherents are to stand."

To Heaven's name, what more can they want in the way of political equality, in the way of a swing at the general and local offices, in the way of constitutional and legislative provisions especially designed for their benefit, in the way of chances to drive hard bargains in the market of venal legislation, than they have actually had?
Considering the comparatively insignificant number of negroes competent for various public functions, high and low, the people for whom Mr. Pinchback professes to speak, and in whose minds he labors, to instill the poison of an irrational disconfidence, have been represented far beyond their due proportion in the State Government, the State Legislature, and the City Administration. But the mass of our white citizens have not grudgingly these excessive representations. They are still willing to abide by them as concessions in the interest of conciliation, of harmony, and of mutual confidence between the two races.

But all this is not enough, according to Mr. Pinchback. With ominous intimation he tells his people that they ought not to be satisfied with their present share in the Government, and that something is terribly amiss in subsisting relations between them and the whites.

Now what is this talk but incendiary agitation? It is nothing less. Let Mr.
Pinchback understand that his air of oratorical bully will not frighten our people from their just indignation upon him in his incendiary character. But doubtless he is intoxicated with the fumes of his ambition, and it is useless to address words of warning to him.

We are at a loss to know how the Picayune can assert that Mr.
Pinchback is too vague, and as it demands that he make the square issue and let all know where he and his colored adherents stood we will try to inform them. We demand fair representation on the State ticket, in the Legislature and in Congress; an equitable distribution of public patronage, perfect equality before the law, and such a state of public sentiment that the bare possibility of a colored man's name being mentioned in connection with the nomination for Governor will not subject him to the unjust imputation of trying to array the whites against the blacks, convulsing society, desolating the fairest portion of our State and making it the abode of wild beasts and squalid savages, and the lot of the negroes, woful, bitter and hopeless beyond all that the gloomiest eloquence has ever heretofore depicted as their possible fate.

The delegates elected by the Philadelphia Convention, left the city for their destination on Tuesday afternoon.

Yesterday Evening's Picayune still wriggles about in distress over the prospect of reconciliation in the Republican party, and in its agonies it groans its wishes as the opinions of the delegates to the "Democratic and Reform Conventions" who are arriving every day.

It counts any aid from Gov. Warrenton or his party, although it says the Democratic party "do not dream of carrying the State election against the reunited elements of the Republican party in Louisiana, including the solid negro vote, and backed by all the political influences and official instrumentalities of both Grant and Warmoth."

What then does it "dream of?"

Early yesterday morning a fire occurred on Common street, between Carondelet and St. Charles streets, destroying the Shakespeare Saloon, and damaging adjacent property and goods to the estimated amount of nearly twenty thousand dollars.

Vice President Colfax has received a paper from Georgia, signed by 150 colored persons, who represent that they are anxious to go to Liberia, where, they say, some of their friends are doing good for themselves and good to the benighted nations. They cannot go without money, and therefore ask Congress to help them, or assist the colonization society in sending them thither.—E.

Josh Billings says: "I am rather favorably impressed with gun and pistol as an extract, and think a minister of the gospel might content with some on it of the same successfully, but when he comes to recommend it to his people, I have my doubts about it, unless he knows his people better than I do."

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Before the hour for meeting the hall of, and the entrances to the Mechanics Institute were lined with a large and anxious crowd, all discussing with more or less vehemence the possible, probable, or inevitable consequences of this or that course, if adopted by the Convention. As the time for calling the body to order approached, the large hall was densely packed by the crowd who unceremoniously appropriated even the seats for delegates.

Some unavoidable delay occurring in the temporary President's appearance, the delegates grew impatient and clapping of hands and stamping of feet were resorted to for awhile.

At 11:30 Senator Harris called the Convention to order, and announced, as the first business in order, the report of the

On motion, duly seconded, the report was adopted, with one or two amendments.

The press of lookers-on was so great that a motion to clear the body of the hall of all but members was necessary. It occupied some time to effect this move, but it was completed, and a more orderly appearance was made.

Hon. N. Underwood, from the Committee on Permanent Organization, submitted the following:

Your Committee beg leave to recommend that the officers of this Convention consist of a President and twenty-four Vice-Presidents, to be appointed by the President; a Secretary and Assistant Secretary, to be elected by the Convention; two Sergeants-at-Arms, to be appointed by the President; and two Door Keepers, to be appointed by the President.

The report was received and adopted.

J. H. H. Camp, Chairman of the Committee on Rules, then offered the following:

Your Committee on Rules recommend that the rules of the last House of Representatives be adopted, for the government of the Convention, and that in the absence of delegates from any parish, one representative from that parish deposit his vote, and that all the resolutions shall be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions without debate.

On motion, duly seconded, the Conventions went into nominations for permanent officers of the Convention.

The Chair declared nominations in order.

FOR PRESIDENT.

Hons. A. B. Harris, P. B. S.
Pinchback, H. J. Campbell, H. C.
Dibble, W. L. McMillen.

On motion, nominations were closed.

Senator Harris, Lieut. Governor Pinchback and Gen. McMillen, each graciously thanked their friends for placing their names before the Convention for election as President, but declined to run and requested their friends not to vote for them.

Two names only being left, an effort was made to reconsider the motion by which the nominations were closed, but it failed.

On motion, it was resolved that the election be had by ballot, and that a majority of the votes cast should elect.

The Chair was, on motion, authorized to appoint three tellers.

The selection fell on H. Mahoney, of Plaquemines, Matthews, of Ten-ness, and Camp, of Orleans.

The polling of votes was then gone into, resulting in the election of Hon. H. J. Campbell, by 158 votes against 38 for Hon. H. C.
Dibble.

On motion of H. C. Dibble, duly seconded, the election of President was made unanimous.

Mr. Quinn moved, duly seconded, that the Chair appoint a committee of three to escort the President to the Chair.

The Chair appointed J. W. Quinn, C. Dibble and P. B. S. Pinchback.

On the approach of Gen. Campbell, he was met and cordially received by the retiring officer, while the Convention saluted him with cheers.

Senator Harris then presented the President, and withdrew.

Gen. Campbell restored quiet and said:

Gratitude of the Convention: I thank you for the honor you have conferred on me in selecting me to preside over four delib-of justice and equity which are the basis of the organization; that the public owe to him chiefly the preservation of the maintenance of the rights of the colored people which were surmountable only by the exercise of extraordinary wisdom, courage and dispassion; that, with his powerful co-operation, the State may hope for a deliverance from many evils, the existence of which cannot be disputed, and the continuance of which would be disgraceful to the Republic; and that he is, our first choice for the office of Governor at the next election; that we present him as our candidate, and urge all other Republican organizations to endorse and support him.

Resolved, That in our honored fellow-citizen, Lieutenant Governor Pinchback, we have a bold, able and manly leader in the Republican party—one who can be trusted in the future with its interests as he has been in the past; and that we do hereby endorse him as our first choice for Lieutenant Governor, and we present him as our candidate, and urge all other Republican organizations to endorse and support him.

Resolved, That as all true Republicans are desirous of averting the dangers which beset their party, and of regaining the right of the other class to equal chance in the race of life, and as they desire it for themselves, and they thought the people of Louisiana were willing to accord them, but from the "unfortunate" the Providence it would appear that they are not.

In the conclusion of his remarks, the speaker moved to adjourn, which was amended so, as to read: "Adjourn at 10 o'clock."

EVENING SESSION.
At 7 o'clock, P. M., President Campbell called the Convention to order.

Many of the Vice-Presidents were in the room were invited to seats on the platform. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was called for and the Chairman, Senator W. L. McMillen, mounted the stand, and in clear tones, read the following:

RESOLUTIONS.
General W. L. McMillen, chairman of the committee on resolutions, then reported the following, which were on motion, unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we declare the Republican party of Louisiana to be in sympathy with the national Republican party; that we endorse the principles laid down by the Chicago convention.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves and our party to the faithful execution of the constitutional and statutory provisions for the public education of all the children of the State, without distinction.

Resolved, That we insist upon the enforcement of the constitutional and legal guarantees of the civil and political rights of all men, without distinction of race, color or previous condition.

Resolved, That a long train of evils, which necessarily result from the effort being made by the Democratic party to obtain control of the State government, through disunion in the Republican party, among these we may mention the destruction of the civil rights law; the establishment of qualified suffrage; the destruction of our common school system; repudiation of the State debt; and the subjection of the colored elements to bitter personal and commercial oppression; and, as abundant evidence is to be found in the tone of the press, in the speeches, that the conservative elements of the State are in a political overthrow, and that they are subordinating the Presidential and all other true Republican principles, therefore:

Resolved, That in order to save the State from Democratic rule, and to perpetuate free government, it is highly important that all Republican elements in this State should unite upon a ticket to be composed of true and tried Republicans, and to secure this end we pledge ourselves to the maintenance of the existing differences of opinion upon national affairs.

Resolved, That we condemn the action of the federal officials in this State in attempting, through arbitrary and illegal exercise of power, to interfere with the right of the people to peacefully assemble; and we urge our State government, and through combinations with our political enemies, to overthrow the Republican party.

Resolved, That we recognize in Governor Warmoth an officer who has combined with an efficient discharge of public duties an unimpeachable fidelity to the principles and policy of the party by which he was elevated to his high position; that to him the Republican party largely owes whatever of success it has enjoyed in the recent election; and that there is no man in the country who has done more to secure for us the rights we are now enjoying.

HARPER'S BAZAR. A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight.

Harper's Bazar contains 16 full pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is published weekly.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. Harper's Bazar contains, besides pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of special use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit.

It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.

Subscriptions.—1872. Harper's Bazar, one year, $4 00. An extra copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

HARPER & BROTHERS, New York.

HARPER'S PERIODICALS. Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the world.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE. No more delightful travels are printed in the English language than appear perpetually in Harper's Magazine. They are read with equal interest and satisfaction by boys of every grade from eighteen to eighty. Its scientific papers, while sufficiently profound to demand the attention of the learned, are yet admirably adapted to the popular understanding, and designed as much to diffuse correct information concerning current scientific discovery as it could be if it was the organ of the "Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge."

The great design of Harper's is to give correct information and rational assistance to the great masses of the people. There are few intelligent American families in which Harper's Magazine would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine an intelligent reading family can less afford to be without. Many Magazines are accumulated. Harper's is said of. There is not a magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent points on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world.

—New England Homestead.
It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of Harper's.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1871. Harper's Magazine, one year, $4 00. An Extra Copy of either the MAGAZINE, WEEKLY, or BAZAR will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance; or, Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, Harper's Weekly has earned for itself a right to its title, "A Journal of Civilization."

The Best publication of its class in America, and so far ahead of all other journals as not to permit of any comparison between it and any of their number. Its columns contain the finest collections of reading matter that are printed. Its illustrations are numerous and beautiful, being furnished by the chief artists of the country.—Boston Transfer.

Harper's Weekly is the best and most interesting illustrated newspaper. Nor does its value depend on the illustrations alone. Its reading matter is of a high order of literary merit—valued, instructive, entertaining, and unexceptionable.

Subscriptions.—1871. The Annual Volumes of HARPER'S WEEKLY, in neat cloth binding, will be sent by express, free of expense, for $7 00 each.
